6. CP & V Item

a) New Member : Resignation of Joy Williams

Julie Ferguson checked her emails and reported that Joy had stated her resignation in December along with regrets for that meeting. Bonnie Mahaney also spoke with Joy Williams and affirmed her resignation. It was decided that the group would advertise on Facebook and ask any people that they thought would be a good fit if there was any interest in becoming a member.

b) Bicycle Rodeo / Safety – RCMP

Julie Ferguson reported that she had sent an email to Sgt. O’Callaghan and had heard back from Ryan Ash of the Barrington RCMP in regards to a potential bicycle rodeo. Mr. Ash asked for details of our event, if any, to see what could be done on their end. CP & V decided to respond that they would like to see the RCMP host an event and that the Town would gladly offer a space for the event and advertise for the event.

c) Review of Volunteer Awards Ceremony

Robin Walker updated the CP & V Committee on the upcoming Volunteer Awards Ceremony to be held on April 24th, 6:30 p.m., at the Community Centre. The Shelburne Volunteer Fire Department Ladies’ Auxiliary will cater the event and provide tablecloths. Robin will MC the event, Bonnie will read the bios, and Karen will pass out the awards. Robin will send out an email for any help she needs setting up.

d) Provincial Volunteer Awards Ceremony April 1st, Halifax Lunch

Bonnie reported on the Provincial Volunteer Awards Ceremony that was attended in Halifax by herself, Robin Walker, and the Town of Shelburne representative, Debi King. Bonnie reported that there were new organizers this year and they were not quite sure where to go when they got there. The event was very well attended. Debi enjoyed the ceremony and her daughter also attended. Robin Walker will post photos on Facebook of the lunch.

e) Christmas Lights Auction

Julie Ferguson brought up the previously discussed idea of the Christmas Lights Auction. It would be a week-long auction on Facebook with the ability to put in standing bids at the Town Office for those who do not use Facebook. Julie will talk to Grant to see when would be the best time for public works to take down the lights so pictures could be taken. Minimum bids would be set and money from the sale of the lights will go into the account for Christmas Lights.
