

Rhonda Baker-LaPlante

Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee Volunteer of the Month April 2014

Rhonda Baker-Laplante helps youth and in the process helps her community. Rhonda works with the Shelburne Cadets, has taught Sunday school, volunteered with the King Street Centre, assisted with minor baseball fundraising and led the charge to support community events as an employee of Scotiabank Shelburne.

Rhonda was recognized as the Town of Shelburne's Representative Volunteer of the Year for 2014 at the provincial reception in Halifax on April 7th and at the local reception on April 10th.

Rhonda on being recognized: "It was an honor to be among so many people who give so freely of their time."

The Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Rhonda as Volunteer of the Month for April, 2014.