

Sue Quinlan

Town of Shelburne
Community Participation &
Volunteerism Committee
Volunteer of the Month
May 2014

Sue Quinlan is a mother of three and an active volunteer at Hillcrest Academy. Sue volunteers for the school's breakfast program and fluoride program, and as a lunchtime monitor. Sue is the president of the newly founded Hillcrest Academy Playground Society, a group dedicated to improving the play equipment at the school. Recently Sue helped organize a very successful Spring Carnival event to raise money for the playground.

For her dedication to Shelburne's youth, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Sue as Volunteer of the Month for May, 2014.
