

Bess Rattray

Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee Volunteer of the Month October 2014

Bess Rattray has been a full member of the Shelburne Volunteer Fire Department for five years, becoming the Department's first female captain in 2014. She has been a great asset to the Department, assisting in fundraising activities including the annual Street Dance.

In addition to her service as a volunteer fire fighter, Bess is active in her support of community groups including the Osprey Film Club, the Christmas Craft Sale and the Shelburne Historical Society.

For her dedicated service as a member of the Shelburne Volunteer Fire Department and her active support of community groups, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Bess as Volunteer of the Month for October, 2014.
