Volunteer of the Month
November 2014

Hank Falk has been an active member of the Shelburne branch of the Royal Canadian Legion for many years until it's closing this year, volunteering and cooking for many of the events held in that building.

In addition to supporting the local legion branch, Hank is also the President of the Birchtown Community Hall and assists in the kitchen with the monthly community breakfasts and other events held there. He has also been involved with the Black Loyalist Heritage Society for many years and is currently the Treasurer of the Board of Directors. Hank has even started an annual free Community Christmas Dinner, which takes place on Christmas Day.

For his enduring support of community groups in the Shelburne area, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Hank as Volunteer of the Month for November, 2014.
