

Bill Cox

Town of Shelburne
Community Participation &
Volunteerism Committee
Volunteer of the Month
June 2015

For many years Bill Cox has been volunteering his time and energy to make Shelburne a better place to live. Over the years he has volunteered in support of many community groups including, but not limited to, the J.C. Williams Dory Shop, the Shelburne Historical Society, Meals on Wheels, the Anglican Church, and various sub-committees of Town Council.

Bill continues to play an important role in our community and serves as a great reminder of the sense of pride of community through volunteerism.

For enriching our community with his volunteer spirit, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Bill as Volunteer of the Month for June, 2015.
