

Carol Ferne Morash

Town of Shelburne
Community Participation &
Volunteerism Committee
Volunteer of the Month
January 2016

Carol Ferne Morash has volunteered in support of the Shelburne Area Lions Club for many years.

A former King Lion, Carol has been active in fundraising, helps out in the kitchen for many events and supports the various services offered by the Club. In particular, Carol plays a major role in the annual and much-appreciated Christmas Giving Tree project.

For her support of the local Lions Club and contributions to the community, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Carol as Volunteer of the Month for January, 2016.
