

Barb Falk

Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee Volunteer of the Month February 2016

Current Vice-President of the Black Loyalist Heritage Society, Barb Falk has been an active volunteer for numerous community organizations.

Barb has supported the Black Loyalist Heritage Society in many roles over the years, from volunteering to serving on the board to participating in historical re-enactments. Among contributions too many to mention, Barb volunteers with her church, is a member of the Well Women's Planning Committee, and serves as Treasurer and Director of the Birchtown Community Centre. Barb also helped start the Shelburne County Community Christmas Dinner which has grown steadily over the past six years.

For donating her time and energy to support numerous community groups, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Barb as Volunteer of the Month for February, 2016.
