

Adam Ritcey

Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee Volunteer of the Month September 2016

Adam is a physical education teacher at Shelburne Regional High School.

For the past two years he has volunteered with the Special Olympics, serving on the executive and coordinating and organizing various initiatives, meetings and fundraising activities. His efforts have helped to support Shelburne's Special Olympians in their achievements.

Adam also volunteers with numerous local youth sports, coaching bowling and floor hockey.

For his dedication to local sports and willingness to go the extra mile for local youth, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Adam as Volunteer of the Month for September 2016.