October 2016

Dick D'Entremont has volunteered with the Barrington Ground Search and Rescue team for more than two decades, helping to provide a vital emergency service for local residents. For the past nine years, D'Entremont has presented the Hug a Tree and Survive program to school children throughout Shelburne County, educating children on wilderness survival skills.

In addition to his dedication to protecting our most vulnerable residents, Dick D'Entremont often volunteers his time playing music for local community events.

For his commitment to protect and serve our communities the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Richard as Volunteer of the Month for October 2016.
