

Wayne Blinkhorn

Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee Volunteer of the Month August 2017

Wayne Blinkhorn gives his time in support of several organizations in our community.

Wayne is a long-standing member of the committee responsible for organizing the annual Shelburne Whirligig and Weathervane Festival on Shelburne's historic waterfront; this will be the 18th year for the festival. Wayne also volunteers at the Sandy Point Community Hall, the Osprey Arts Centre, and with the local Meals on Wheels program.

Wayne's latest endeavor is participating in the restoration of the Mill Building on the corner of Dock and George Street.

For his numerous volunteer efforts the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Wayne Blinkhorn as Volunteer of the Month for August 2017.
