

Chett Buchanan

Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee Volunteer of the Month February 2018

Chett Buchanan volunteers in many ways. He has lent his numerous talents to various musical and theatrical productions in the community including the Basement Theatre and Schooner Players.

In addition to the Osprey Arts Centre, Chett supports a number of musical charity and community events including volunteering to coordinate the musical offerings during the annual Founders' Days festival.

Chett shows his volunteer spirit at SRHS as well, helping young musicians and recently working with local students to begin decorating the Town's lift stations.

For his ongoing contributions to projects in our community, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Chett Buchanan as Volunteer of the Month for February 2018.
